

Workshop “Organizing and Mobilizing: the Role of the Law”.

À l’occasion de la venue de Michael Mc Cann (Université de Washington, Seattle)

Organisé par Romain Huret (EHESS, CENA) et Liora Israël (EHESS, CMH), avec le soutien de l’Atelier “Droit et Politique” (Labex TEPISIS, PRI “Terrains du droit”)

Lundi 16 mars 2015

Matinée : Salle 12, CENA, 105 Boulevard Raspail, 75006 Paris

Après-Midi : salle M&D Lombard, 96 Boulevard Raspail, 75006 Paris

9h 30-11 h15 Mobilizing, Organizing and the Law at Work

-Alexia Blin (CENA), “Cooperatives and legal protection: the ambiguous normalization of voluntary organizations (Wisconsin 1870s-1930s)”

-Vincent-Arnaud Chappe (CEMS) “Taking Trade Action to Court: A Sociology of Support and Resources for Legal Action”

-Mathieu Hocquelet (CMH, CPN-Evry) “The emerging protests among the US precarious workers in the global service corporations: Between the appropriation and the circumvention of the right to organize”

Pause

11h30 – 13h The making of political and legal consciousness

-Emmanuelle Perez Tisserand (CENA), “An analysis of the mobilization for the sovereignty of California in 1836”

-Delphine Thivet (CMH, IRIS), “Globalizing Farmers Rights Consciousness : La Via Campesina’s Promotion of an International Convention of the Rights of Peasants within the United Nation System”

13h – 14h Pause Déjeuner sur place

14h – 15h30 Constructing an Audience through the Media, through Law

-Sonia Birocheau (CENA), “An exercise in public relations: Chicago teachers and the local media in the 1920s-30s.”

-Corentin Durand (CMH, LIER-IMM), “Law Behind Bars”

Pause

16h- 17h30 Law, Space and Politics

-Elsa Devienne (CENA), “Who has the right to the Modern Beach? Urban Modernization, Spatial Politics and the Definition of a Beach Public in Postwar Los Angeles (1940s-1960s)”

-Baptiste Sellier (CMH, CETOBAC), “Implementing Housing Rights for the Palestinians : The Uses and Practices of Law and Urban Planning in Israel-Palestine »